An aerial photograph of a coastal region. A large, dark blue body of water occupies the upper right portion of the frame. To the left, a rugged coastline is visible, characterized by a dense forest of trees in shades of green and brown. The terrain appears to be a mix of land and water, with some smaller bodies of water or inlets visible along the shore. The overall image has a grainy, high-contrast quality typical of older aerial photography.

Dedication

THE CLASS OF 1964 dedicates its Yearbook to Miss Grace Catherine Huber with deep gratitude for her unselfish devotion to the intellectual and spiritual needs of Woodbridge youth.

Miss Huber who was born in Woodbridge spent most of her life here in the service of her community. She began her teaching career in 1905 in the old Number One School. She took charge of the Library in the Barron Avenue School in 1929. The Library then housed but a few hundred books. When she retired from school work in 1957, the Library, under her tireless guidance, numbered over ten thousand volumes.

Woodbridge Township knew her as an indefatigable worker in the Red Cross where she served faithfully in the Home Service Department for over a quarter of a century.

The Class of 1964 realizes that when Miss Huber departed this life last September she did not really pass beyond our ken but is still living and influencing us through the grand work she did for us in the Library of Woodbridge Senior High School.

MISS GRACE CATHERINE HUBER

MISS MARY P. CONNOLLY

THIS JUNE, as the Class of 1964 graduates, Miss Connolly, our Vice-Principal, also "graduates" to serve as principal of the new John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial High School in Iselin. For the past twenty-eight years Miss Connolly has added immeasurably through her teaching and administration to the growth and development of our school. During the past year, Miss Connolly performed not only her normal duties at the W.S.H.S., but also effectively transferred these many tasks to the administrators who are to take her place. While Miss Connolly regrets in part leaving the Woodbridge Senior High School, which she now feels to be a part of her, she also feels that the challenge of the new John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial High School will open "double opportunities" to our township. Our very sincerest wishes for success go with her.

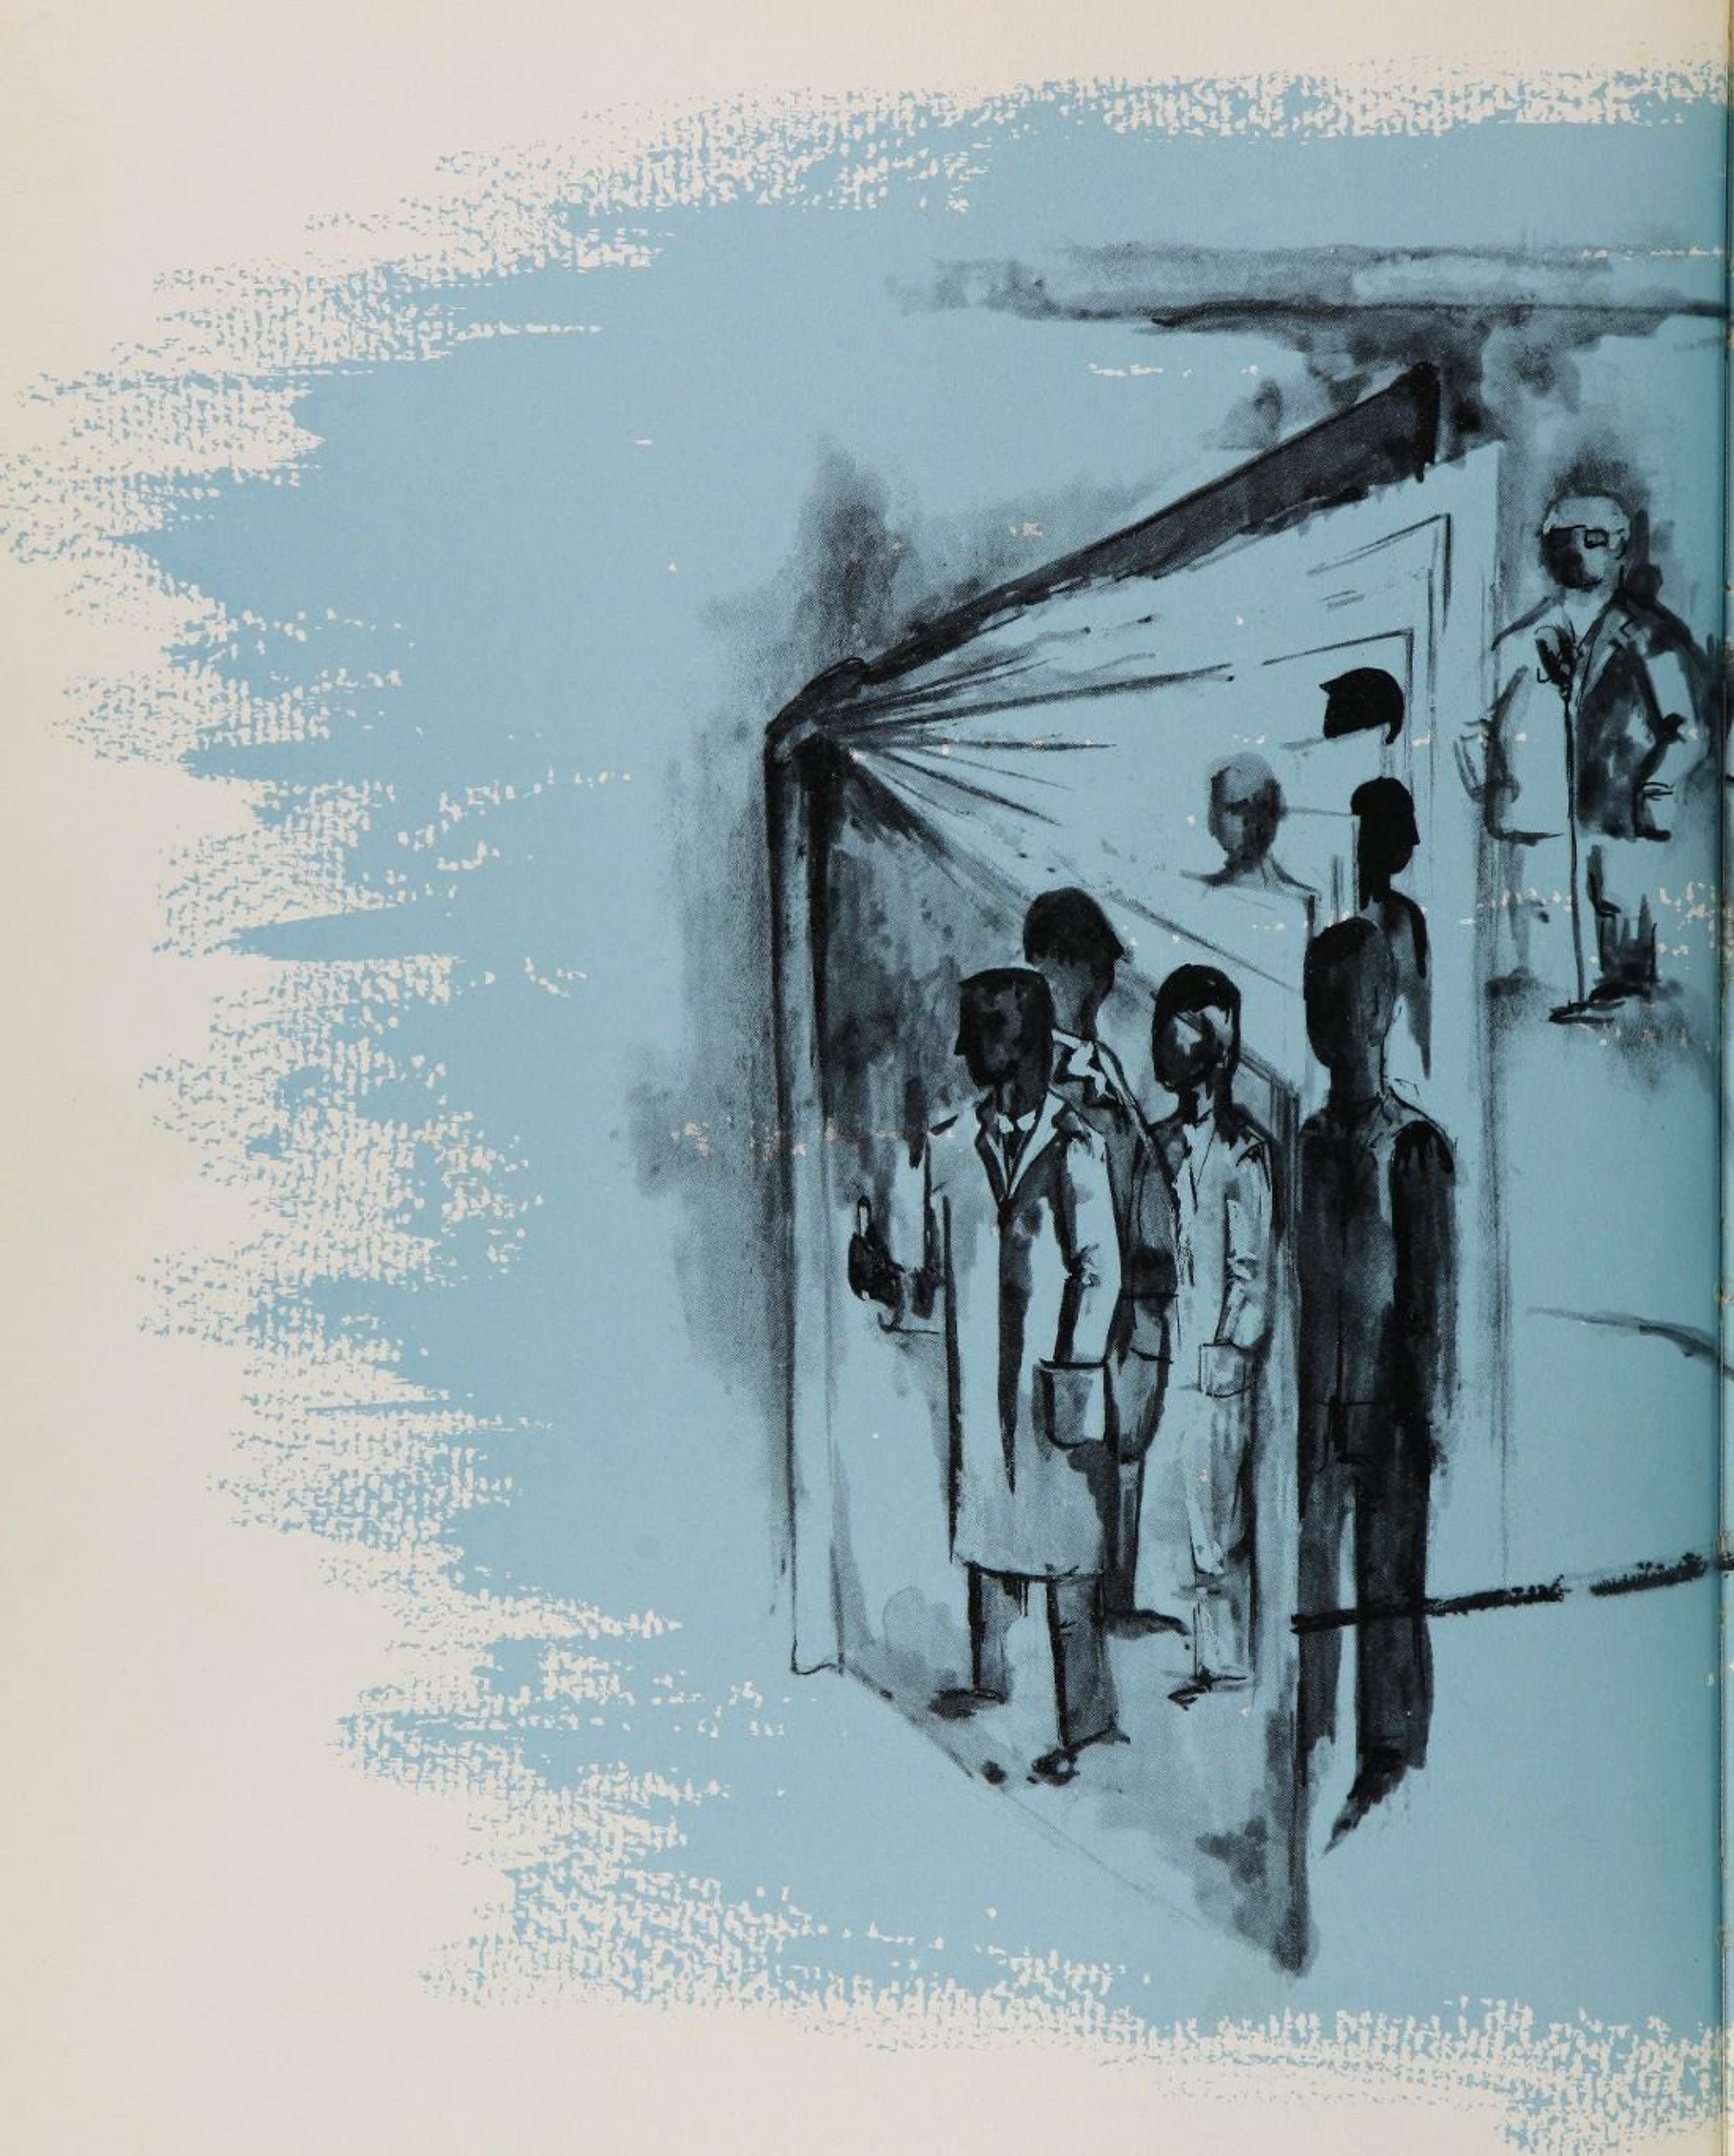

MR. DONALD E. DEVANNY

MR. DONALD DEVANNY, who served as our assistant vice-principal from 1957 to 1963 left us last summer to become vice-principal of the Madison Township High School. His warm manner, quiet dignity, sense of humor, his ability to fulfill his mammoth responsibilities and his deep personal concern for the student body shall always remain in our minds and hearts.

We, the Class of 1964, will particularly hold in high esteem his fine spirit and devotion to us when we most needed him.

Throughout his twelve years in the Woodbridge Township's school system, Mr. Devanny's educational principles exemplified the highest standards of unity, cooperation, diligence, and understanding. May he continue to fulfill these same ideals in Madison Township. The Woodbridge Senior High School Class of 1964 wishes him the best of luck.

Administration and Faculty

John P. Lozo
Elise E. Lozo

DR. JOHN P. LOZO
Principal

AFTER SERVING as principal of the Woodbridge Senior High School for twenty years, Dr. Lozo proclaims justifiably with great pride, that unusual progress has been made in this period of time. In 1944, when Dr. Lozo first came to Woodbridge, our school was a four year high school with 1,000 students. Now, in 1964, Dr. Lozo has charge of four times as many students in a three year program. In his important role as principal of the Woodbridge Senior High School, he has achieved great success, not only in his high academic goals, but also in his fine spiritual standards. We look to him as the leader whom we, his students, wish to follow.

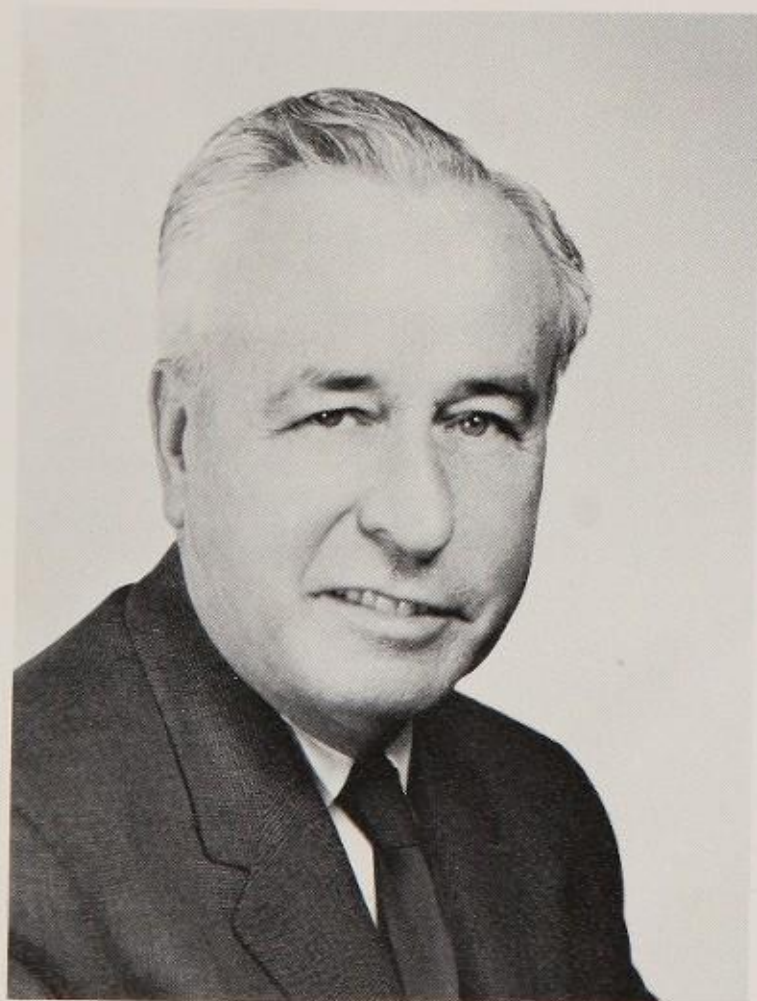

DURING THE seven years Mr. Patrick Boylan has been Superintendent of the Woodbridge Township schools, he has witnessed the doubling of our school enrollment. He met the challenge of the innumerable problems which arose from such an extraordinary growth with the help of his assistant superintendents, Mr. Thomas Desmond and Dr. Robert Polglaze.

We, the Class of '64, were the first group to emerge from four different junior high schools, meeting as a unit in the Woodbridge Senior High School. Historically, we the Class of '64 shall also be the last such unit to graduate from the Woodbridge Senior High School, since with the opening of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial High School in Iselin, our high school student population will be divided.

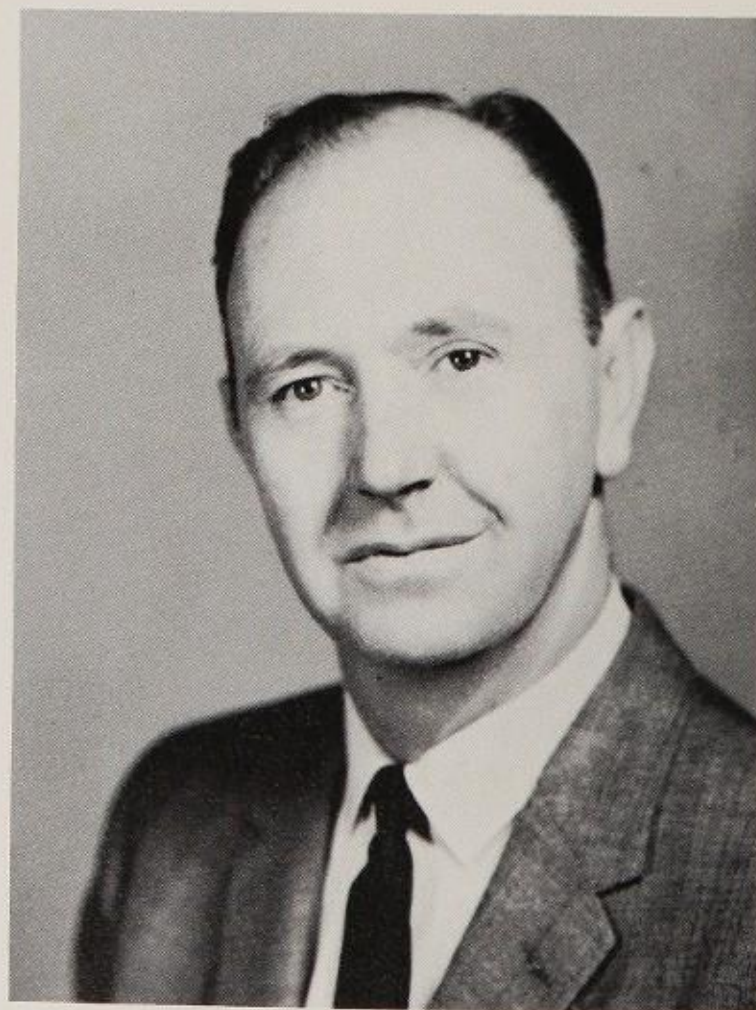

To Mr. Boylan, Mr. Desmond, and Dr. Polglaze we owe a deep sense of appreciation and gratitude for their dedication to those duties which maintained our high standards of learning.

MR. PATRICK A. BOYLAN
Superintendent of Schools

MR. THOMAS DESMOND
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

DR. ROBERT POLGLAZE
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

THE SMOOTH co-ordination of operation which is necessary for the functioning of Woodbridge Senior High School was handled by Mr. Louis Gabriel, Mr. John Stanaitis, and Mr. John Tomczuk this year. Each administrator contributed his abilities to solve the varied problems that arose throughout the school. The efforts of these executives are guided by the philosophy of our school which aims to enable the students to obtain the basic attitudes, skills, and characteristics to promote the democratic way of life in our community, in our state, and in our nation. Coupling these attitudes with each student's individual abilities, the administrators are striving to help each one find his most suitable role as a good citizen who will contribute to the welfare of his fellowmen.

Seniors

THE CLASS OF '64

We, the Class of '64, were kept busy throughout the year. The administration permitted us greater liberties in our choice of activities and in our self-governing principles.

Our Class also initiated a new form of representative election in the homerooms; this was later copied by other organizations of the school.

For the first time in the school's history, the senior play was presented for three nights instead of the traditional two.

A Senior Work Day was instituted to raise additional funds for the senior treasury. Another successful and profitable event was the Senior Masquerade held in October. It was really a most enjoyable sight to see such original and humorous costumes.

Throughout the school year, it was the duty of the Welfare Committee to send get well wishes and condolences to students and faculty members. The senior bulletin board kept the entire school informed on all activities throughout the year. The Senior Announcement Committee made the students aware of daily events by announcements over the public address system.

To honor those senior boys and girls displaying outstanding service, leadership, and citizenship, the Class of '64 organized a "Senior Citizens of the Month" program.

The most elaborate and most controversial senior activities were the Senior Semi-Formal held in January and the Senior Prom in June. Every member of the graduating class had a very special interest in these activities. These were "our" dances, and we had a gala time.

The last event on our busy agenda was graduation in June, 1964, when we bid a fond farewell to our alma mater. In our hearts will always remain the warmth and friendliness that everyone in W.S.H.S. gave to the Class of '64.

SENIOR CLASS EXECUTIVES

CLASS SONG 1964

by DONALD POLANSKY

Verse I

As we bid a final dear adieu
To Woodbridge Senior High,
We reminisce of the fond times had,
In the days gone by and by.
We'll always remember our teachers,
And all the friends we've made,
During our three short years in Woodbridge,
Whose memories shall never fade.

Verse II

Now as we stand before the world,
Each one to go his sep'rate way,
On the road to our future destinies
Let come whatever may,
Oh, Woodbridge, you've prepared us
To face our doubts and fears,
And make the best of all our lives,
Throughout the coming years.

Chorus

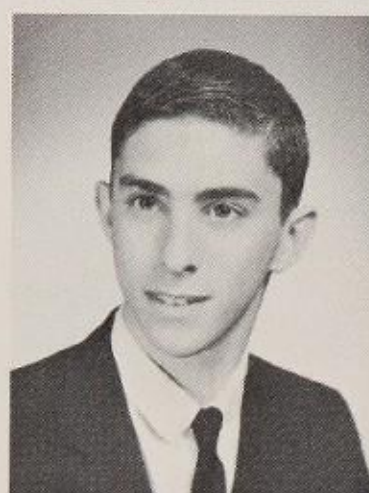

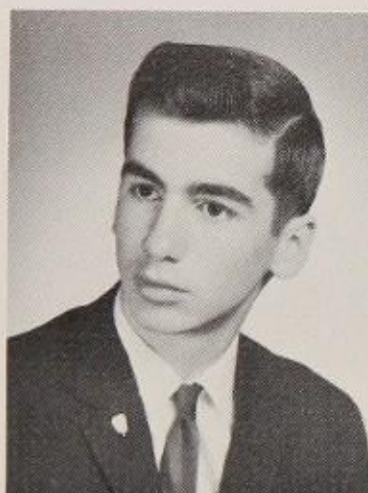

Farewell, dear Woodbridge High School,
From the class of '64,
Farewell, dear Alma Mater,
We'll remember you forevermore.

SENIOR PLAY

A lady wrestler?!

For the first time in the history of Woodbridge Senior High School, the Senior Play, The Happiest Millionaire, was performed for three nights, December 12, 13, and 14. This hilarious family comedy took place between September 1916 and June 1917, in the Biddle home in Philadelphia. The action centered around the socialites of that time. The play was a complete success as a result of the fine acting and hard work of the cast and the crew members.

The play, under the direction of Mr. Andes and Mr. Peterson, proved to be very profitable.

But, Mother, I'd rather do it myself!

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the very capable direction of Mrs. Gross, Mr. Mascenik, and Mr. Mahon, this year's Student Council has been extremely successful and productive. It succeeded in promoting a better relationship between students and teachers; it produced many programs and enjoyable student activities. In December, the Student Council held a Christmas luncheon for the faculty, and throughout the course of the school year discussed students' problems with the administration. For the students themselves the Student Council did many things: a Varsity Club was organized for the school's athletes; cookie sales, which began when the Class of 1964 came to Woodbridge Senior High School, reached an "all-time high" of popularity; identification cards enabled students to enter Student Council functions for half price; money was contributed to a student loan fund and to the departments; ten scholarships were made available to students; plans for a Pen Pal program were made. For this the Student Council can be proud; but it can be even more proud of itself for its efforts to develop the American Field Service Program in Woodbridge. Woodbridge Senior High School has finally received its own foreign exchange student, Elisabeth Sales. This summer one of Woodbridge's very own students will also have the opportunity to live with a family in another country.

Junior Class

THE CLASS OF 1965, under the capable supervision of Mrs. Bernstein, was extremely active in the past year. These students were in charge of cookie sales on the third floor and initiated a school-wide sweatshirt sale. In addition, a very profitable chocolate candy sale and two successful Junior Parties were held. Much credit is due to the participants of the Junior Revue. If they continue their perseverance and good spirit, the Graduating Class of 1965 will surely be very fine.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS — Treasurer Jack Muha, Vice-President Esther Lake, Secretary Kathy Urban, and President Dale Chodosh

Sophomore Class

BECAUSE OF ITS UNUSUALLY large size, the sophomore class of Woodbridge Senior High School had its activities severely limited. Instead of the traditional class officers, an executive committee consisting of a chairman and a secretary was elected. The Sophomore Party in May, which was the main event of the year, was overwhelmingly and enthusiastically attended. All through the year the class of '66 showed its great desire to participate in Woodbridge Senior High School activities by turning out in large numbers.

SOPHOMORE CLASS CHAIRMAN AND ADVISOR—Secretary Robyn Gadek, Advisor Miss Johannsen, Chairman Gerald Highberger.

OFFICERS OF NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY—Secretary, Cynthia Covino; President, Jan Kandell; Advisor, Mr. Brown; Vice-President, Charles Kavcsak; Treasurer, Joanne Kolenz.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Character, scholarship, leadership and service—the four statutes of the National Honor Society—were well illustrated in the students who made up its body. As well as maintaining their own high standards, these persevering students aided others through the National Honor Society's tutoring program. During the year, they participated in the annual "tapping" and induction ceremonies, attended the Broadway show, Beyond the Fringe, and concluded the year with their long awaited picnic in June. All these activities were financed by this productive group in their candy sales.

Membership in the National Honor Society is not only a great privilege, but a great responsibility as well. This year's members have definitely exhibited their trustworthiness in order to uphold the dignity of the society.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY—First row: Treasurer J. Kolenz, President J. Kandell, Vice-President C. Kavcsak, Secretary C. Covino. Second row: R. Baumgartner, D. Zederbaum, P. McGettigan, A. Rotella, J. Goodstein, L. Offen, L. Giannicola, J. Clark, C. Mazurek, R. Serotkin, E. Davis, I. Sokolowski, P. Seng, M. Abramo, J. York, M. Sherrard, G. Pierce. Third

TOP TWENTY

The top twenty of the class of 1964 were selected for their extremely high academic achievements. During the past three years, these students harvested the results of study and hard work by learning to think and to utilize their knowledge. For this, they were chosen for one of Woodbridge Senior High School's highest honors.

We are really proud of these capable and deserving students who have reached the top of the ladder of success.

FORENSICS SOCIETY

Once again our debating team completed a successful year. Woodbridge Senior High School has always been recognized for having an excellent Forensics Society, and this year our Barron team proved its excellence not only in New Jersey but also in Pennsylvania and New York. Both the varsity and junior varsity squads did extensive research concerning the pros and cons of the Medical care to the aged program. Early this year our affirmative and negative teams debated against each other in preparation for rugged competition. After careful evaluation of its potential, the team was enrolled in many tournaments and has progressed through a profitable season.

The Junior Red Cross of Woodbridge Senior High School, under the faculty supervision of Miss Laskowski, planned and achieved another interesting year. The volunteer workers at Roosevelt Hospital donated their leisure time to cheer patients during holiday times and daily visits, and the annual membership drive once again aimed for 100% enrollment.

Through the efforts and devotion of the Junior Red Cross members, they learned compassion and understanding to guide them in life.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The Woodbridge chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America was formed for the benefit of all Woodbridge Senior High School students who are interested in the business world after graduation. Aside from speakers who made valuable contributions to the students about information concerning the business world, F.B.L.A. members visited the California Oil Company where they observed the stenographic and I.B.M. computer departments in action. In addition, the members listened to reports on good grooming and "Operation Econ," a study of the economy of Woodbridge.

The eagerness and enthusiasm of the organization made its operation a huge success, one which will be of importance to all members interested in the business world.

Future Business Leaders of America Officers are President Linda O'Brien, Vice-President Josephine Yapaola, Secretary Vicky Sabestinas, Treasurer Diane Bosko, and Reporter Gloria Fillipesuk. Advisors are Miss Pesce and Mr. Schieni.

BARONET

Baronet this year had two hard-working, diligent students as co-editors, Elaine Bohrer and Richard Adleman, who co-ordinated all the staffs and consulted with Mrs. June Sayles, advisor, on procedures and arrangements. The most taxing phase of Baronet was organizing pictures and providing captions for them. Jane Goodstein, literary editor, and Mrs. Sylvia Oettle, advisor, re-read and re-read each caption to make sure that it was exactly right. The senior and the activities staffs under editors Richard Tahirak and Dennis Space, organized their sections into an attractive display. Stanley Dorn, photography editor, continually made his presence known with his flashbulbs and camera. Mike Markow, sports editor, and his staff sorted and arranged sports material. Janice Paliwoda, art editor, supervised her staff and Howard Wolny, business editor, took care of boosters and patrons. Judy York and her staff did an extremely efficient job typing all of the copy. All those working on Baronet tried to make it the yearbook everyone would remember.

ALL-HI

Joyce Clark, editor of the All-Hi News, had her capable hands full preparing each publication. The finished product was one of the best high school papers in the state. The newspaper included a Senior Celebrity Column which gave the readers glimpses of our prominent high school citizens. Robert Lease, feature editor, wrote a column, The Spectator, in which he extends sympathy to seniors in times of crises, such as lab reports and senior math tests. Leslie Sliker, news editor, organized the tidbits about club events, and Marilyn Patrick, make-up editor, consulted Miss Pesce, All-Hi advisor, as to where which article belonged. Charlie Kavcsak, sports editor, also delighted his readers with his informative column. All the editors and staff members strove to maintain the good name that All-Hi has made for itself, and they succeeded very well.

EL DORADO

The 1963-1964 El Dorado, in the capable hands of editor Margaret Nichols, and under the supervision of Mrs. Elizabeth Goodstein, expanded to include more poetry, book reviews, and play reviews. Ruth Baumgartner, literary editor, and Robert Roth, feature editor, worked analytical and critical book, play, and movie reviews. The sales editors, Rita Serotkin and Ellen Stahl, did an excellent job. They appointed salesmen and kept the money records straight. This work required patience and organization. The entire editorial staff of the 1963-1964 El Dorado achieved one of the finest magazines ever published.

CURRENT CIVICS CLUB

In 1964, the Current Civics Club, under the capable direction of Mr. Hodes, had an extremely active and exciting year. Seeking to learn more about Woodbridge Township, the club worked on a history of Woodbridge, and sponsored a history fair, the first such activity in this school. The C.C.C. also joined the state-wide "Jerseyman" and worked with a committee on the history of New Jersey in honor of the state's tercentenary. During the year, the members of the club heard several interesting speakers, who helped them reach their goal of becoming well-informed young citizens.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America, one of the largest organizations in the school, continued its active program once again this year under the supervision of Mrs. Warman. The main project, classroom observation, was executed by the members in various class rooms all over the township school district. Observing the methods employed by various teachers proved a valuable experience.

Speakers, tape recordings, and films added even further value to the yearly program. Mr. Lund, the supervisor of the township elementary schools, obtained two speakers for the benefit of the organization.

For its annual college tour, the F.T.A. travelled to Fairleigh Dickinson University.

At the close of the school year, a tea was given for all paid members for their hard work and dedication.

SECRETARIES TO DEPARTMENT HEADS

During the school year, student secretaries to department heads were introduced to office life. These girls, who give up their study periods for this service, operate duplicators, take dictation, and run off notices pertinent to each department. All the workers were selected for proficiency in English, mathematics, or secretarial ability. Not only are they helping others, but they are also meriting for themselves invaluable practice in office techniques.

OFFICE

The office staff provided the school with innumerable services that many students are not aware of. Their efficiency was our lifeline, making the school day with its various functions run smoothly. We owe much thanks to them.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

At the Winter Concert, the Concert and the Dance bands presented a program of international music. Included were such favorites as "Exodus" and highlights from Camelot. Alta Trachtenberg and Eric Seijo turned in excellent vocal performances, and the Dance Band played an original tune by Jack Fishman. During the winter, the band also made its annual television appearance in Philadelphia; the National Honor Society induction rounded out the band's year.

The excellent performances of the Band were due to hard work and devotion on the part of members and their untiring director, Mr. Urbanski.

The band enjoyed one of its most productive seasons. In addition to performing at pep rallies and other school activities, the Concert band presented its usual Christmas program and also gave concerts at School No. 11, Metuchen High School, Clark High School, and the four junior highs. The Marching Band, with Drum Major Bob Wloczewski, contributed pre-game and half-time entertainment at the football games by performing intricate routines and spirited music.

This year the Marching Band acquired smart straw skimmers, which were donated by the Board of Education. During the year the Marching Band also participated in many local parades.

VOCAL MUSIC

The Vocal Music Department, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Musacchia, continued its fine performances at school functions and local civic events.

A new duty of the Vocal Music Department this year was to present a patriotic song each morning in lieu of the Bible reading. The boys who sang over the P.A. system each morning were most effective in arousing the students' patriotic spirit.

The department presented its annual Christmas Program, which included appropriate popular, traditional, and classical pieces. It was taped by the local radio station WCTC for later broadcasting to the populace. In February, as a part of the Operatic Festival, forty-six vocalists participated in an English production of La Boheme. The highlight of the year was the Spring Concert in which the soloists and chorus exhibited admirable performances. The proceeds of this event were put toward the purchase of a school organ. There was also an exchange program with Woodbridge Junior High School. The Memorial Day program completed the year.

ELISABETH SALES

Elisabeth, better known as Liz, has been W.S.H.S. exchange student from England for the past year. She was born in the country and attended the Church of England School until she was eleven. Her family then moved to a suburb of London, and Liz entered the Catholic Convent School, a semi-private institution just outside London. At home Liz's 21-year-old brother, Richard, is training to be an airline pilot.

When her American sister Ellen Stahl, first showed W.S.H.S. to her, Liz was overwhelmingly impressed by its size. She felt that she would never find her way in it, but the strangeness soon wore off. She has found both the students and the administration very congenial and helpful.

After graduating from high school, Liz plans to attend college and become an elementary school teacher.

Ellen, "Liz" and Beethoven.

"But I'm afraid of heights! !"

MISS MARIE-CLAIRE MORTREUX

Miss Marie-Claire Mortreux, a native of France, came to W.S.H.S. this year in conjunction with the foreign exchange program. In France, Miss Mortreux taught German and French; she was also a qualified interpreter.

Miss Mortreux thought that the students and teachers here were extremely friendly and cooperative. She regarded the pep rallies as one of the most striking activities of W.S.H.S.

Traveling is one of Miss Mortreux's favorite activities, and she is considering teaching for one more year in the United States before returning to France.

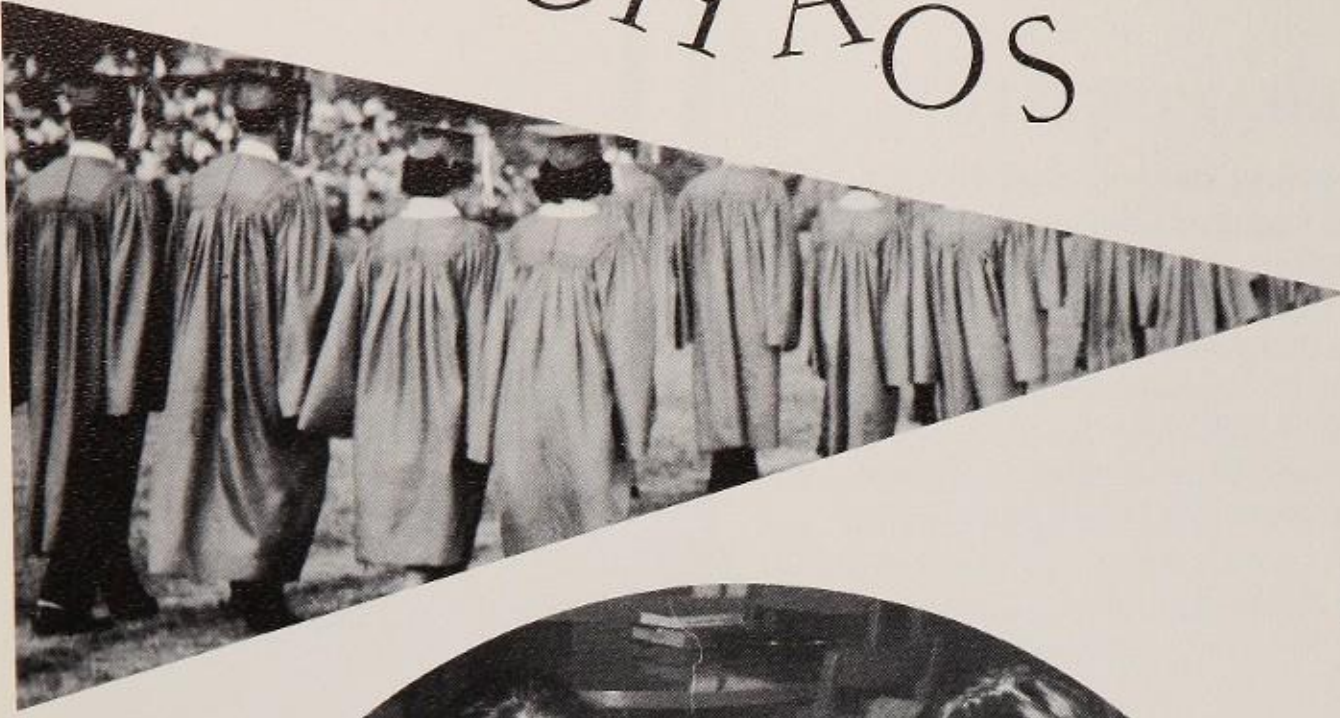

MISS HELEN LOUISE BAUM

Miss Helen Louise Baum left Woodbridge Senior High School for a year of teaching in Belgium, where she taught English, while Miss Mortreux, the exchange teacher, taught French here.

Miss Baum has a distinctive way of teaching which her students will always remember. We cannot forget her delightful tales of her travels to France.

The students of Woodbridge Senior High School are indebted to Miss Baum not only for her excellent teaching methods but also for her warmth, friendliness, and understanding.
